Dr. Ben-Artzi:

Re: In the Matter of Deutsche Bank AG, File No. 3-16557
Notice of Covered Action 2015-61

We were disappointed to learn of the Securities and Exchange Commission's ("SEC") denial of our application for a whistleblower award. In light of our extensive submissions on your behalf, we believe this to be an unfair outcome.

An appeals process exists that enables us to contest this ruling. However, we feel that your recent media campaign has impaired the likelihood of a successful appeal.

We understand that you regard your share of the award as dirty money and have decided not to personally accept any portion of the award. Therefore, we request that you direct the SEC to direct $2,500,000 to us. This payment is in addition to the contracted amount payable to Kilgour Williams Group.

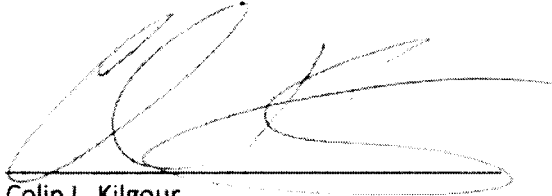

Please sign below to indicate your agreement to request that the SEC Office of the Whistleblower direct payment to us as follows:

- Kilgour Williams Group Incorporated, $247,500, under our contract of 24 April 2013
- Colin L. Kilgour, $1,250,000
- Daniel G. Williams $1,250,000

Letter to Dr. Eric Ben-Artzi, August 24, 2016
In the Matter of Deutsche Bank AG, File No. 3-16557
Notice of Covered Action 2015-61

Sincerely,

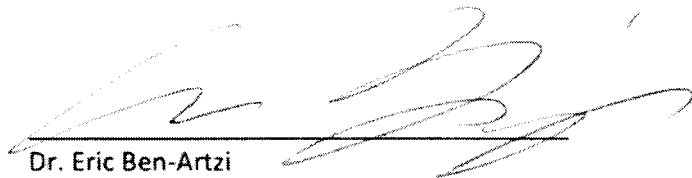

Colin L. Kilgour
